PREFACE

FIVE years ago, in presenting THE COKESBURY HYMNAL to the people, we said: "This book is an attempt to bring back the old hymns and tunes that people love to sing."

Inspired by that purpose, the publishers asked for suggestions from a large number of preachers, song leaders, and Christian workers, requesting each one to name the hymns which, in his judgment, appealed most powerfully and generally to his people.

Answers were received from a large number, and the result was THE COKESBURY HYMNAL.

The success of that book was immediate, it has been continuous, and it has reached a circulation perhaps unprecedented in the history of such books.

THE NEW COKESBURY HYMNAL has been prepared in the same manner, so we may say that the hymns and tunes contained in it have been chosen "by the people and for the people."

Some of the best known and most loved of the hymns and tunes in the former volume have been retained in this, and many new and old hymns have been added.

Special programs for orders of worship and quite a number of Scripture lessons from both the Old and New Testaments for use as responsive readings have been added.

We confidently expect a large demand for this new book from those who have been using the old one.

That the new will prove a blessing and will meet the demand of those who wish a popular and spiritual collection of hymns and songs to aid them in their worship is the sincere wish of

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

Arr. by LOWELL MASON

1. O for a thou-sand tongues to sing My great Re-deem-er's praise,
 2. My gracious Mas-ter and my God, As-sist me to pro-claim,

 'Tis mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, 'Tis life, and health, and peace.
 His blood can make the foul-est clean; His blood a-vailed for me.
 Ye blind, be-hold your Sav-ior come; And leap, ye lame, for joy.

 From ev-er-last-ing Thou art God, To end-less years the same.
 They fly, for-got-ten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.
 Be Thou our guide while life shall last, And our e-ter-nal home.

 We will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to tri - umph thro' us.
 The Spir - it and the gifts are ours, Thro' Him who with us sid - eth.

For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe; His craft and pow'r are great.
 Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He; Lord Sabaoth is His name,
 The Prince of darkness grim, We tremble not for him; His rage we can en - dure,
 Let goods and kindred go, This mortal life al - so: The bod - y they may kill:

And, armed with cru-el hate, On earth is not his e - qual.
 From age to age the same, And He must win the bat - tle.
 For lo! his doom is sure, One lit - tle word shall fell him.
 God's truth a - bid-eth still, His kingdom is for - ev - er. A - men.

My Hope Is Built

EDWARD MOTE

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY

1. My hope is built on noth-ing less Than Je-sus' blood and righteousness;
2. When darkness veils His love-ly face, I rest on His unchanging grace;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But whol-ly lean on Je-sus' name.

78 Ere Mountains Reared Their Forms Sublime

HARRIET AUBER

LOWELL MASON

1. Ere mountains reared their forms sublime, Or heav'n and earth in or - der stood,
2. A thou - sand a - ges, in their flight, With Thee are as a fleet - ing day;
3. But our brief life's a shad - owy dream, A pass - ing tho't that soon is o'er,
4. To us, O Lord, the wis - dom give Each passing mo - ment so to spend,

Be - fore the birth of an - cient time, From ev - er - last - ing Thou art God.
 Past, present, fu - ture, to Thy sight At once their va - rious scenes dis - play.
 That fades with morning's earliest beam, And fills the mus - ing mind no more.
 That we at length with Thee may live Where life and bliss shall nev - er end.

2. Teach us to bear the yoke in youth, With steadfastness and care-ful truth,
3. Teach us to rule ourselves al - way, Controlled and cleanly night and day,
4. Teach us to look in all our ends On Thee for Judge and not our i-riends,
5. Teach us the strength that cannot seek, By deed or tho't, to hurt the weak,
6. Teach us de-light in sim-ple things, And mirth that has no bit-ter springs,

That they may build from age to age An un-de-fil-ed her-i-tage.
 That, in our time, Thy grace may give The truth whereby the na-tions live.
 That we may bring, if need a-rise, No maimed or worthless sac-ri-fice.
 That we, with Thee, may walk un-cowed By fear or fa-vor of the crowd.
 That, un-der Thee, we may pos-sess Man's strength to comfort man's distress.
 For-give-ness free of e-vil done, And love to all men 'neath the sun.

 Heav'n's e - ter - nal days be - fore thee, God's own hand shall guide thee there.

Per - ish ev - 'ry fond am - bi - tion, All I've sought, and hoped, and known;
 And, while Thou shalt smile up - on me, God of wis - dom, love, and might,
 O 'tis not in grief to harm me, While Thy love is left to me;
 Soon shall close thy earth - ly mis - sion, Swift shall pass thy pil - grim days,

Yet how rich is my con - di - tion, God and heav'n are still my own!
 Foes may hate and friends may shun me; Show Thy face, and all is bright.
 O 'twere not in joy to charm me, Were that joy unmixed with Thee.
 Hope shall change to glad fru - i - tion, Faith to sight, and pray'r to praise. A-men.

2. The Shepherd sought His sheep, The Fa - ther sought His child;
3. No more a wan-d'ring sheep, I love to be con - trolled,

No more a way - ward child, I seek no more to roam;

I did not love my Father's voice, I loved a - far to roam.
He bound me with the bands of love, He saved the wand'ring one.

I CORINTHIANS 12: 12-27

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

PSALM 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he lead-eth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

300 The Godly Man

PSALM 1

1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

301 The Godly Man

PSALM 15

1 Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

302 The Beatitudes

MATTHEW 5:1-12

1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness'sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

303 Responsibility

EZEKIEL 33:7-20

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

304 Responsibility

MATTHEW 25: 14-30

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant:

thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gathered where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

305 Watchfulness

MATTHEW 25: 1-13

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

RESPONSIVE READINGS

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all of those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch, therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

306 God Revealed in Nature

PSALM 19

1 The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

307 Refuge in God

PSALM 46

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

308 Comfort

JOHN 14: 1-12

1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long a time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

PSALM 34

1 I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

310 Thanksgiving and Praise

PSALM 67

1 God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us;

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

311 Thanksgiving and Praise

PSALM 100

1 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

2 Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

312 Thanksgiving and Praise

PSALM 103: 1-18

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousness and judgments for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9 He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

313 Thanksgiving and Praise

PSALM 107: 1-20

1 O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

314 Thanksgiving and Praise

PSALM 146

1 Praise ye the Lord. Praise the Lord, O my soul.

2 While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man; in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he that hath the Lord of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God:

6 Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The Lord looseth the prisoners:

8 The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous:

9 The Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord.

315 Thanksgiving and Praise

ISAIAH 12

1 And in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say,

Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

316 Rejoicing

PHILIPPIANS 4: 4-13

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

317 The Supremacy of Love

1 CORINTHIANS 13

1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of phophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

318 Brotherly Kindness

GALATIANS 6: 1-10

1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

319 Birth of Christ

MATTHEW 2: 1-10

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

320 The New Birth

JOHN 3: 1-17

1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

321 The Suffering Saviour

ISAIAH 53

1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgressions of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

322 The Suffering Saviour

MATTHEW 27: 27-44

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then there were two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

323 The Resurrection

MATTHEW 28: 1-10

1 In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

324 The Resurrection

1 CORINTHIANS 15: 12-25

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

325 Worship

PSALM 95: 1-7

1 O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day if ye will hear his voice.

326 Worship

PSALM 40: 9-11

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

ISAIAH 9: 2-9

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart.

ACTS 16: 9-15

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

ROMANS 1: 13-23

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

RESPONSIVE READINGS

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

PSALM 2

1 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that sitteth in the heav- ens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

331 Fruits of the Flesh and of the Spirit

GALATIANS 5: 16-26

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred,

variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the afflictions and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

332 Faith and Works

HEBREWS 11: 1-10

1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

333 Faith and Works

JAMES 2: 14-26

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

334 Christ the Chief Corner Stone

1 PETER 2: 1-17

1 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

335 New Year's Day

PHILIPPIANS 3: 1-14

1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other men thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his suffer- ings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: But this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

336 Patriotic

DEUTERONOMY 8: 6-20

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget

RESPONSIVE READINGS

not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilder- ness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the Lord destroyed before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

Public Worship

SUGGESTIVE DIRECTIONS

Importance.—Worship is essential to the development of Christian character. It is a communion or fellowship with God which makes real to man the sense of the divine being and presence. It gives man new and fresh views of God and of his will and purposes. It helps the worshipers to see themselves and their fellow men as God sees them and to place his estimate upon them. It helps them to view their own feelings and conduct toward each other and God in the light of his will and purposes. It should result in very definite attitudes, feelings, and purposes taken toward God and mankind. Worship should be more than an "opening exercise." It should be one of the best-prepared, most effective parts of the services of the Sunday school, Church, Epworth League, and other groups.

Age Grouping.—Wherever possible, as in the Sunday school, worship should be provided for children and young people by age groups. Differences in age, experience, capacities, and needs make necessary worship services that differ in purpose and content. Workers with children and young people should make a special study of the worship of children and adolescents. The Church should feel a keen responsibility for providing adequate room and equipment for age-group worship.

Preparation.—Careful preparation should be made for each worship service. Much of our failure in worship is due to a lack of diligent preparation. Leaders must prepare themselves both by a close walk with God reflected in daily living and by careful study and planning for each particular service. In the specific preparation for a worship service the following simple suggestions may be helpful:

a. Study the group for whom the service is being prepared, and on the basis of this study determine the outstanding common needs. It is usually found that these needs are for Christian attitudes and appreciations toward God, Jesus, their fellow men, and the institutions and activities of men, and also for Christian ideals and purposes.

b. With the needs of the group in mind, the leaders are in better position to decide intelligently just what they hope the service will accomplish and what sort of services they should prepare in order to help accomplish their purposes. Very definite purposes, or aims, should be decided upon. In addition to being specific, they should be few in number. It has been found by some leaders that among the best ends to be sought are those of calling forth and reënforcing such positive Christian attitudes as gratitude, good will, reverence, faith, and loyalty. A single service will aim to call forth only one or two of these attitudes directed toward a very specific objective as God, Jesus, fellow men, the Church, or other persons, institutions, and factors in man's daily experiences. Some have found it profitable to have a series of services planned to help the worshipers respond with the same attitude in successive services, but toward different persons or institutions. In so doing the attitudes and purposes called forth in the series are strengthened by each reënforcing the other.

c. The next step is that of selecting the "Theme" or "Subject" of the service and the different elements such as hymns, Scripture, instrumental music, and prayers. All of the elements should be in harmony with the "Theme" or "Subject" and assist in the accomplishing of the aim or purpose of the service. They need to be so selected and arranged that the service will be a unity, dignified and suited to the ages and experiences of the worshipers. If possible, the words and sentiments voiced in the service as it progresses should be the expression of the feelings, ideals, and purposes of the worshipers. Every element in the order of the service should serve some definite end in the progress and toward the outcome of the service.

Music and Hymns.—Music on such instruments as the pipe organ, organ, piano, and violin may be very helpful in worship. It is often used to:

- a. Frame the initial mood for a service.
- b. Express the needs, sentiments, and purposes of the group.
- c. Lead the group into a prayerful attitude and suggest prayer thoughts.
- d. Conserve the attitudes and purposes evoked in the service against the disorder and confusion of dismissal.

Instrumental music used to serve these ends should, as a rule, be the tunes to hymns that are familiar to the worshipers, the recalled words of which suggest to them definite sentiments, attitudes, and purposes. As a rule an orchestra is not conducive to the real spirit of worship.

Hymns of the best type should be selected. "Peppy" songs and "jazz" music are not conducive to worship and reflect a perverted taste. The following may be helpful in the selection of hymns:

- a. Select them according to their place in the service. Opening hymns should be ones that help to unify the group, strike the keynote of the service, and make the initial appeal. Hymns for the body of the service should be quiet, dignified, and conducive to meditation. Climax or closing hymns should express self-dedication, purpose, and action.
- b. Tunes should be majestic, yet simple and within the range of the vocal powers of the worshipers.
- c. The words should be simple and Christian in imagery, and good poetry.
- d. The words should teach Christian conceptions of God and theology.
- e. The thoughts expressed should be in harmony with the "theme" and purpose of the service.
- f. The words and thoughts should be within the understanding and experiences of the worshipers.

Scripture.—Scripture is one of the most widely used materials in worship. Generally, it is read responsively, in unison, or by an individual. It is sometimes presented by story, dramatization, or sung by the choir or congregation. Like the other elements, it should be selected with the "theme" and the group in mind so as to have it in harmony with the other parts of the service and easily understood by the group. Scripture passages that are used for worship need to be vital, rich in content, and such that yield their meanings clearly. The worshipers have but a brief time in which to grasp the message of the Scripture, and the more readily it yields its meaning the more effective it will be. Passages that recount vital life experiences, such as the story of the good Samaritan or the heart throbs expressed in some of the Psalms, are the most helpful for worship.

Prayer.—Prayer is the heart of worship. Group prayers or ones offered by an individual should be the prayers of all the worshipers. To make them so, public prayers should be confined to the blessings as well as the needs, hopes, aspirations, and purposes of the group. They should be in terms that are easily understood by all and must be brief, orderly, definite, and concrete. It is much better to thank God for specific blessings than to express public thanksgiving in such a general way that it will not evoke an accompanying response of gratefulness from the group. This principle applies in all types of public prayer.

Stories and Talks.—Stories, poems, talks, and other like messages are very helpful in worship. They make concrete and definite the central thoughts of the service and often provide vicarious experiences for the worshipers that result in definite Christian attitudes and purposes. It is important that they be well selected and presented. Worship leaders will do well to give diligent study to the use of these valuable materials for worship purposes.

Surroundings.—Careful attention should be given to the surroundings. The worship room should be clean, neat, simple in adornment, well heated and ventilated. The seats should be comfortable and so arranged that the worshipers do not face the light. Entrances to the room should be at the rear, as passing in front of a congregation disturbs worship. Such distractions as the distribution of songbooks after a service begins, late comers, and moving about during the service should be reduced to a minimum.

Study Helps.—The successful worship leader is one who studies and plans for worship. The following will be found helpful in the study of this very important Christian ministry:

Kennedy and Meyer: The Training of the Devotional Life.

Weigle and Tweedy: Training the Devotional Life.

THE CHURCH

Apostles' Creed (repeat in unison):

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Hymn: "I Love thy Kingdom, Lord." (No. 33.)

Scripture Reading: Psalm 84 (read responsively).

Responsive Reading:

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Jehovah of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah. My heart and my flesh cry out to the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Jehovah of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the highways of Zion.

Passing through the valley of weeping, they make it a place of springs; yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength; every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Jehovah, God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob. Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For Jehovah God is a sun and shield; Jehovah will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Jehovah of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Hymn: "The Church's One Foundation." (No. 10.)

Talk: "Loyalty to the Church." (Let some one selected in advance make a five-minute talk on the place of the Church in our everyday life.)

Prayer.

Pledge of Allegiance (in unison).

As members of the Sunday school (or Church), we pledge our allegiance to the Church and dedicate ourselves to her service. We will make her ideals our own, we will be subject to her discipline, support her institutions, attend her services, and give of our time and talents in extending her borders in our own community and throughout the earth, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Benediction (by the leader).

[PREPARED BY L. F. SENSABAUGH.]

338

PRAYER

Call to Worship:

LEADER. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

RESPONSE. God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us.

Hymn: "Lord, We Come before Thee Now." (No. 19.)

Prayer for an Understanding Heart (in unison).

We pray, O God, that thou wouldst give us a good understanding that we may not spoil the good of life through sheer folly. We know that thou dost intend that life shall have its good and that in many ways it is thy purpose that such good shall be very full and satisfying, but we can and often do balk thy purposes through our utter foolishness. We know that thy great universe of spirit has its laws and that our well-being and happiness are dependent upon our living in accordance with them. Do thou help us that we shame not ourselves by stupidly ignoring them. Times without number we have gone out into life searching feverishly for happiness when we might have let thee come into our lives bringing thine own great peace and happiness. We confess all this, and we do pray for forgiveness, but most of all we pray that thou wouldst help us for the future better to assess values and to be wise with thy great wisdom and understanding. Thou hast called us to be thy sons and daughters. May thy spirit that enlightens and guides into all truth be ours more fully. Amen.

Talk by Leader: "The Mystery of Prayer."

It is sometimes urged that prayer is mysterious. So is everything else, if we stop to think about it. Matter is a mystery. Nobody knows what matter is. Force is a mystery. Nobody knows what force is. Gravitation is a mystery. Nobody knows what gravitation is. Nobody knows what takes place when we drop a lump of sugar into a cup of coffee. Whether the change is mechanical or chemical, the very wisest men are not able to say. We know just one thing, that by dropping sugar into the coffee, the coffee is sweetened. For most of us that is enough. We know that by dropping a prayer into a day we sweeten the day. How this is brought about we do not know. Who has sight so keen and strong that it can follow the flight of song or flight of prayer? Why should we not be as reasonable and practical in our religion as we are at the dinner table? (Charles E. Jefferson.)

Hymn: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." (No. 251.)

Prayer.

Talk by Leader: "Prayer at Valley Forge."

Isaac Potts, at whose home Washington was quartered, relates that one day, while the Americans were encamped at Valley Forge, he strolled up the creek, when, not far from his den, he heard a solemn voice. He walked quietly in the direction of it and saw Washington's horse tied to a sapling. In a thicket near by was the beloved chief upon his knees in prayer, his cheeks suffused with tears. Like Moses at the bush, Isaac felt that he was upon holy ground and withdrew unobserved. He was much agitated and, on entering the room where his wife was, burst into tears. On her inquiring the cause, he informed her of what he had seen and added: "If there is anyone on earth whom the Lord will listen to, it is George Washington; and I feel a presentment that under such a commander there can be no doubt of our eventually establishing our independence and that God in his providence has willed it so."

Closing Hymn: "Lord, Speak to Me." (No. 182.)

Benediction.

[PREPARED BY L. F. SENSABAUGH.]

GOD OUR STRENGTH AND HELP*

Instrumental Music (organ, piano, or violin): "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." (No. 251.)

Silent Prayer. (After a moment of silent prayer by the group, let the leader close with a brief prayer asking for a true spirit of worship to be in the hearts of all and for a better appreciation of the strength and help that comes from God.)

Hymn (congregation standing): "For the Beauty of the Earth." (No. 32.)

Responsive Reading (congregation standing): Psalm 19. (No. 306.)

Scripture (to be read by the leader or one chosen to make the talk): Matthew 6: 26-30.

Talk (by leader or some one chosen). (Let this talk set forth the fact that God is supremely interested in our welfare. All of earth's resources are for us; God's natural and moral laws are for our good; it is through him and his gifts that we have the abundant life.)

Offering (accompanied by instrumental music): "Take My Life, and Let It Be." (No. 233.)

*The leaders should endeavor in this service to help the group to become more grateful to God for his wise provision for all man's needs.

PROGRAMS OF WORSHIP

Hymn (congregation standing): "O Lord of Life, and Love, and Power." (No. 159.) (In place of this hymn any of the following may be used: "Teach Me, My God and King," No. 135; "Lord of All Being Throned Afar," No. 160; "In Life's Earnest Morning," No. 129.)

Prayer (by the leader or some one selected in advance). (Let the prayer be for a better understanding and appreciation of God's wise provisions for us and for more consecration in living appreciative, serviceable lives. Let the leader close with the Lord's Prayer, in which the congregation joins.)

Instrumental Music (recessional): "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee." (No. 175.) [PREPARED BY H. W. WILLIAMS.]

340 APPRECIATING THE GREATNESS OF SMALL THINGS

Organ Prelude (played softly while the congregation is seated with bowed heads): "A Charge to Keep I Have." (No. 29.)

Hymn (congregation standing): "A Charge to Keep I Have." No. 29.)

Prayer (in unison):

Help us, O Lord, our Father, to see the opportunities for service that are about us. Help us to realize that even though our tasks may seem insignificant, thou dost expect us to do them well. Grant that we may ever be faithful and true to thee and our fellow men, particularly in the little things in life. This we ask in the spirit of Christ. Amen.

Scripture Reading: "The Talents," Matthew 25: 14-30. (No. 304.) (This may be read by some one previously appointed.)

Vocal Solo: "I Would Be True." (No. 40.) (If no one can be found to sing this hymn as a solo, it may be sung by the group or congregation.)

Talk (not more than five minutes). (This talk ought to point out the best in the particular situation in which the group is working. It may be a small Sunday school with poor equipment, or it may be a situation that is not very promising, but God expects every one to do his best, no matter what the task may be. The following Scripture references might be of help in this talk: Mark 10: 13-16; Matthew 25: 31-46; Luke 12: 6, 7.)

Prayer (by leader or the person making the talk). (This prayer is to be in harmony with the thought of the entire service.)

Hymn: "Give of Your Best to the Master." (No. 212.)

[PREPARED BY O. W. MOERNER.]

341 GRATITUDE FOR THE BEAUTIES OF NATURE *

Call to Worship (congregation standing).

LEADER. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

RESPONSE. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Doxology: "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow." (No. 4.)
(Or "Holy, Holy, Holy," last stanza. No. 64.)

Prayer (in unison):

Thou hast made thy dwelling fair
With flowers beneath, above with starry lights,
And set thine altars everywhere,—
To thee we turn, to thee we make our prayer,
God of the open air. (Henry Van Dyke.)

Remarks or Brief Talk (if possible, by some one who is a lover of flowers and nature): "Seeing the Beautiful in Nature."

Solo (or quartet): "Into the Woods My Master Went." (No. 124.)
(If this hymn cannot be used as indicated, it can be given as a reading by some one who can really enter into its spirit.)

Scripture (read by leader): Psalm 19: 1-6 and Matthew 6: 28-30.

Hymn (congregation standing): "For the Beauty of the Earth." (No. 32, or "This Is My Father's World." No. 54.)

Closing Prayer (in unison):

We thank thee, O Lord, for the things that are out of doors; for the fresh air and the open sky and the growing grass and the tiny flowers and the setting sun and the wooded hill and the brown earth beneath our feet. They are all good, and they all speak the truth, and we rest ourselves, and get new strength to go back to the world of restless men. Keep us ever like thy good world, rugged and wholesome and true. Amen.

[PREPARED BY O. W. MOERNER.]

342 CHRIST IN MY BROTHER †

Instrumental Music: "Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer." (No. 130.)

Call to Worship (by the leader):

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing of the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

*It is suggested that for this purpose the church or room in which the service is conducted be decorated with flowers and the like. This is not to be elaborate, but simple and beautiful, a bouquet or two and some pot plants may be sufficient. If possible, there ought to be some wild flowers.)

†In this service the leaders should strive to help the worshipers to have a more intense feeling of loyalty and helpfulness to their fellow men.

PROGRAMS OF WORSHIP

Hymn (congregation standing): "Lord, Speak to Me, That I May Speak." (No. 182. If another song is desired in place of the above, the following may be substituted: "Breathe on Me, Breath of God." No. 115.)

Responsive Reading (congregation standing): Psalm 15. (No. 301.)

Prayer (congregation kneeling or seated with bowed heads). (Let this prayer be one of thanksgiving for Jesus and a petition for more zeal in serving him.)

Scripture (to be read by leader or some one appointed in advance): Matthew 25: 31-46.

Hymn (congregation standing): "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life." (No. 89.)

Story. (Let the leader or some one selected tell briefly one of the following stories or something similar: "The Vision of Sir Launfal," by Lowell; "The Other Wise Man," by Van Dyke; "The Toiling of Felix," by Van Dyke. If a story is not told, a talk may be made following the thoughts set forth in Matthew 25: 31-46.)

Offering* (accompanied by instrumental music): "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee." † (No. 175.)

Hymn (congregation standing): "Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer." (No. 130.) Or "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee." † (No. 175.)

Silent Prayer (congregation seated with bowed heads, or kneeling).

Benediction (by leader, congregation seated with bowed heads, or kneeling):

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Instrumental Music † (Recessional). "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee." (No. 175.) [PREPARED BY H. W. WILLIAMS.]

A WORLD CALL TO FRIENDSHIP

Missionary Program

Instrumental Music: "Forward Through the Ages." (No. 83.)

Invocation:

"And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony unto all the nations."

---

*An offering should be taken only for some worthy humanitarian cause such as missions, social service work, etc. The average Sunday school collection would not be in harmony with this service.

Hymn: "Christ for the World We Sing." (No. 88.)

Responsive Reading (selected verses):

Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons, but in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness is acceptable to him.

Certain of the Jewish Christians contended with Peter, saying, "Thou wentest into the houses of aliens and didst eat with them!"

But Peter began and expounded the matter unto them, saying, A voice come out of heaven: "What God hath cleansed, make not thou common." And as I began to speak to the Gentiles, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning.

If then God gave unto them the like gift as he gave unto us, when we first believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?

Is God the God of the Jews only? Is he not the God of the Gentiles also?

Yea, of the Gentiles also, if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the Jews by faith and the Gentiles also by faith.

There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female, for you all are one in Christ Jesus.

You were at one time separate from Christ, alienated from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

But now, in Christ Jesus, you that once were far off are made nigh in the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, who made both one and destroyed the barrier which kept us apart.

For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.

So then you are no more strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God

He made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him,

Though he is not far from each one of us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being.

Hymn: "Watchman, Tell Us of the Night." (No. 84.) (Sing antiphonally: the women ask the question of the watchman, and the men give the response. In each case the question begins with the word "watchman" and the response with the word "traveler.")

PROGRAMS OF WORSHIP

Special Feature. (Have two or three leaders prepared to give talks setting forth sympathetic interpretations of this world adventure in friendship. For material on this see any of the following references: Samuel M. Cavert, "The Adventure of the Church," (Chs. V and VI); Margaret E. Burton, "New Paths for Old Purposes," (Chs. I and VI); Gilbert Loveland, "Training World Christians," (Chs. I and II). If possible, have a departmental representative give an account of some home and foreign missionary project which is being carried out by a class or department, thus giving practical demonstration to the expression of the idea of friendship.)

Offertory: "Take My Life, and Let It Be." (No. 233.)

Prayer:

Our Father, we would pray for the coming of thy kingdom. Teach us the meaning of sincerity as we pray this prayer in order that our lives may reveal the earnestness of our plea. Fill us with a passion of Christlike love. May we have the insight of love that transforms human friendships with the radiance of spiritual companionship. May we be conscious of these spiritual potentialities in all our human relationships. With Paul we "bow our knees unto the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant us according to the riches of his glory, that we may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in our hearts through faith; to the end that we, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that we may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us, to him be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus, to all generations, forever and ever. Amen."

Recessional: "In Christ There Is No East or West." (No. 85.)

Song Response: "Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer." (No. 130.)

Leader: "We have heard it said by different boys and girls that there are numbers of ways in which we may have adventures as we are going about our work on the streets, in school, in the Church, and wherever we are. Some of us have already entered upon these commonplace adventures, and we know that it does make each more interesting. To-day we are going to hear of a great adventure. This adventure is one into which most of us have entered, that of trying to follow the ideals of Jesus Christ and thus helping God's kingdom to come in the world. There was once a wonderful story-teller. Often his friends would find him by the seaside, and the stories he told them there fitted into the scene of the boats and the waves; sometimes they were with him on the hillside at sunset, and as he talked there his stories were suited to the evening time; sometimes he talked with them of the ripening grain as he passed with them through the fields. Always they listened eagerly, for there was always action in his stories, men and women moving across the stage, and his friends could see them and hear them speak. The story-teller's friends asked him many questions. One question they asked over and over was: 'What is the kingdom of heaven? What do you mean by these words? Why is it important?' Though the story-teller tried to tell them many times, it was not easy to make them understand that the kingdom of heaven was something that each of them might possess; that it was a way of living. They thought of it as something from without. When a person doesn't know just what a thing is, sometimes it is easier to describe it by something else, and so the great Story-Teller said one day when questioned: 'Why the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field'; and then again: 'Why the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant. This merchant dealt in precious stones. Up and down the country he went buying them. Sometimes people would try to sell him imperfect stones. Sometimes he did buy imperfect stones until he came to know stones so well that he could not be deceived. Many times he heard of beautiful stones, and he would set out with great speed to buy them. A hot, dusty trip through the desert, through the mountain passes, and sometimes even over the sea, he would go to find them, and then many times he was disappointed. At a great loss of time and money he would return home wiser only because he had learned how to select carefully his merchandise and also that he could not afford to take every man's word for the quality of the stone. He found out that sometimes the people themselves who had the stones to sell did not know that they were imperfect. One day after considerable discouragement the merchant heard of the pearl. Those who had seen it said that it was the most beautiful pearl they had ever seen. Some said that they had handled it and that its colors were superb and that its size was marvelous. "O," one of the men said, "it may truly be called the pearl of great price. I might have purchased it myself, I wanted it badly enough, but I would have had to sell all of the stones I have already collected, and I did not care to part with them, and so I did not buy it. But my! I wish I might own it." Another said: "O, I, too, was tempted, but I would have had to give up my life of ease if I had bought it, and much as I wanted it, I could not bring myself to do this." Another said: "I also wanted it very much, but I am expecting to take a long trip, and it will be costly. While I wanted the pearl and I knew I would enjoy it always, I also want to visit my friends and enjoy their friendship, so I could not buy it." Another said: "I was afraid of robbers. If I put so much into one pearl I might be careless in handling it, and it might be stolen!" The merchant listened to all that was said, but replied not a word. To himself he said: "Why do they not leave? I am eager to be on my way. The pearl of great price, this is what I have sought all my life. I will sell all I have and go purchase it!" As soon as the men had gone, the merchant went into the market and sold all that he had. He did not even regret giving up all of his possessions. Wrapping the money securely, he set out and did not stop until he came to the man who owned the pearl. When the owner named the price, the merchant found that it took all he had, to an even penny, to pay for the pearl. Without even thinking of how he was to get back home he paid over the entire amount and received in return the pearl. All the way home and throughout his whole life he never regretted the trade. Over and over he said to himself: "I have given all, but I have more, much more than I had. I have the pearl of great price, And no one can take it from me." Jesus said the kingdom of heaven is within you.'"

Song: "O Jesus, I Have Promised." (No. 232.)

Prayer: "Father, hear the prayer we offer from our hearts, each of us. May we seek the pearl of great price in our own lives and may we find it. May we early have a realization that the pearl of great price is the kingdom of God within. Amen."

3. Song: "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." (No. 67.)
4. Story of David. (An older girl prepared in advance. The following is suggestive: "A beautiful picture is seen in a green pasture on a summer's day. The sheep are quietly grazing, the grass is fresh, the breezes are blowing gently, and a boy with a shepherd's crook by his side is lying on his back looking up into the sky. He is halfway lying under some bushes that have grown up in the pasture, but the shade is not deep enough to keep him from looking into the clouds as they float above him, and the sun is not bright enough to hurt his eyes as he continues gazing and dreaming as he gazes. This boy David dreamed dreams, as all of us dream. We do not know just what they were, but we are sure that they were much the same dreams as boys dream to-day. We are sure that lying there on his back he planned what he would do when he was a man grown; that as boys to-day dream of being president, so he dreamed of associating with kings. No doubt he often came to from a dream to find that the sheep, missing his voice for some time, had decided to seek new pastures and were wandering away. It was then that his crook came into play as he guided them back, as does the Good Shepherd, into the place of safety and food provided for them. In making his plans for the future and in dreaming his dreams we are sure that David took God into account and that he planned always to talk over things with God. He did not always keep his promise that he made to himself as a boy, but somehow he always remembered this promise and came back to it afterwards. Probably never a flock of sheep heard such sweet music as did the flock that David kept; probably never a flock of sheep heard as much poetry quoted as David quoted. Surely he practiced his songs upon his sheep. The poems that we know as the Psalms that David wrote were, no doubt, most of them heard by his sheep as he kept watch. As we see the picture of David, the shepherd lad of so many years ago, tending his sheep, do we wonder that in one of his Psalms, probably the one we love the most, we find a beautiful picture of a shepherd and his sheep? As he saw himself and other shepherds tending the sheep and giving even their lives if need be to protect the sheep, he thought of God as a Shepherd watching over his people. It may be that in watching the sheep, as they went away into places of danger, he thought of himself and of others who went into places of temptation and trouble if they were not listening to the voice of God. We may know David in many ways; may know many things that he did, but probably we will never know him as a lovelier and more attractive person than as a shepherd, and we should like to remember him, and we believe that he would like to be remembered through, the words of the Shepherd Psalm.")
5. All repeat together the Twenty-Third Psalm.
6. Song: "The Lord Is My Shepherd." (No. 224.)
7. Prayer. Suggestive: "Our Father, may we have a knowledge of thee and a trust in thee that David had. We would ask that we may have even a better understanding of thee, for we have the opportunity to know thee as thou wast known to us through thy Son, Jesus Christ. May the Christian ideals that we are building into our lives enter into all of the plans that we are making for our future. May these ideals prevail in our lives each day as we live. May we remember to let 'The words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, our strength and our redeemer.' Amen." [PREPARED BY LUCY FOREMAN.]

346 KNOWING JESUS THROUGH THE LORD'S PRAYER

1. Instrumental Prelude.

2. Song: "The Lord Is in His Holy Temple." (No. 2.)

3. Call to Worship:

Leader:

"Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore him—the Lord in his name."

Response:

"Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings we lay on his shrine;
These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
He will accept in the Name all Divine."

4. Song: "O Worship the King." (No. 5.)

5. Leader: "To-day we are going to think of a great leader of New Testament times—in fact, of the greatest leader in the history of the world—of Jesus, whom we call the Christ. We will think of him to-day as we thought of the two other leaders, through a few chosen words that he uttered."

5. Remarks. (An older boy or girl prepared in advance. The following is suggestive: "We do not know as much of Jesus as we would like to know. Probably none of us know all that we might know about him, but with all of the records that we have of his life there is little enough; but to-day we want to take just a few words. They are: 'Wist ye not I must be about my Father's business?' We remember when these words were spoken. Jesus was just a boy, and it was no doubt with fright that his mother discovered he was not in the company on the journey home. When she found him he was in the temple. We can imagine that he was troubled also when he found that his mother had been, but even then we can hear him

say: 'Why, mother, didn't you know that there are some things I just must do? This is what I believed was the right thing to do at that particular time. For no other reason would I have stayed behind. I am sorry, mother, that you are troubled; but, O mother, don't you understand, I am your boy and it is a joy to obey you, but you do know that I must also hear God's voice speak to me and I must obey his voice also.' And doubtless the mother did understand that, and doubtless many, many times when many hard things were to be done by Jesus she heard him as a boy say: 'Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?'"

6. Remarks. (Another older boy or girl prepared in advance: "Do we really pray the Lord's Prayer or just say it? Sometimes we say it without thinking at all about what it means. This was not the way Jesus intended it to be said. He intended that it should be prayed. We remember that his disciples said to him one day: 'You have talked much about the Father; we know that; you talk to him many times, sometimes when we are with you and many other times when you go apart to talk with him. We do not know just what to pray for, neither do we know how to word our prayers. Give us a prayer that we may pray.' And then it was that Jesus said, 'When ye pray say,' and he gave them what we call the Lord's Prayer. As we think through the prayer will it not help us to know something more about Jesus? It is not that the prayer was the prayer that Jesus used in praying to the Father. We do not know how he worded the many prayers that we know he prayed, but these are the words he gave to his disciples as fitting words for them to use in talking to the Father. May we, as his disciples, pray them together with new meaning.")
7. All pray together the Lord's Prayer, closing with song: "Father in Heaven Who Lovest All." (No. 131.)
8. Benediction: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer."

BENEDICTIONS

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Lord bless you and keep you: the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you: the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
